

Suzuki Violin Teacher

Location: Cape Cod, MA (Barnstable and Falmouth campus openings)

Description: The Cape Conservatory seeks an experienced Violin- Teaching Artist for both our Barnstable and Falmouth locations. We believe that the Arts are the heartbeat of life. Through music, dance, and art, we thrive individually and collectively. For this reason, the Conservatory has always been, and will always be, committed to providing the highest caliber arts education possible. We are equally committed to making the arts more accessible to students of all ages and being a continual source of inspiration—inside the classroom and out in the community.

Duties: Violin Instruction: Teach private lessons, group classes, “Intro to Violin” (Suzuki-based) classes in preschool M W F (ages 3 – 5); some experience with other string instruments a definite plus, but not essential.

May teach both Suzuki and traditional students, if desired.

Possibility of advanced students, youth orchestra sectional work, and/or chamber music coaching.

Pending audition and position availability: possibility of section violin work with Cape Symphony, our partner organization.

Qualifications: Suzuki registered training through Book 2 (minimum)

3 - 5 years teaching experience (minimum)

Enthusiasm, sense of humor, flexibility, and creativity

Strong performance ability and resume

Commitment to continued growth as teacher and musician

Ability to be part of a team as we build a cohesive Suzuki program

Salary: Hourly rate: Private lessons $56, youth orchestra sectional coaching $45, group classes $55. Recitals and events also paid. Attendance/makeup policies are enforced by the Conservatory, and promote/support teachers' time and professionalism. Position open until filled.